

Seattle Center Seeks Candidates for a Position on the Seattle Center Advisory Commission

Seattle Center is seeking candidates for an open position on the Seattle Center Advisory Commission. This 16-member board, appointed by the Mayor and confirmed by Seattle City Council, advises Seattle Center staff, the Mayor, and City Council on policy matters that impact Seattle Center and its operations and redevelopment. The Advisory Commission also provides Seattle Center staff, the Mayor and City Council with ongoing assessments of department operations, performances, plans and policies. Commission members serve as advocates for the greater interests of Seattle Center, particularly its role as the cultural and community heart of the city. Learn more about the Commission here.

We are seeking civic-minded individuals who possess diverse perspectives, have experience with and a passion for arts, culture, sports and entertainment, and are willing to commit their time and creativity to helping Seattle Center continue to thrive. The Commission meets from 12 p.m. to 1:30 p.m. on the first Thursday of each month at Seattle Center, with a virtual attendance option available via Webex. Commissioners often engage in various events and activities at Seattle Center as well.

Anyone interested in serving on the Seattle Center Advisory Commission may send a resume and letter of interest to kaori.kiyono2@seattle.gov. Resumes will be reviewed by Seattle Center and candidates recommended to the Mayor's Office for appointment.

The Mayor and City Council appoint residents of Seattle to over 70 boards and commissions. For information about City of Seattle boards and commissions, visit <http://www.seattle.gov/boards-and-commissions>. For more information about the Seattle Center Advisory Commission please visit <https://seattlecenter.com/about/advisory-commission>.